

Join PRPD for a PRIVATE EVENING AT

THE ROCK AND ROLL HALL OF FAME AND MUSEUM

Thursday September 17, 2009 7:00-11:00pm

Sponsored by National Public Radio, American Public Media and Public Radio International, with transportation provided by host stations, WKSU and Ideastream (WCPN), the seven story Museum of Rock on the shore of Lake Erie will be open for Public Radio Programming Conference attendees only - complete with private guided tours, films and video, and the first of its kind Bruce Springsteen exhibit.

Our sponsors will provide hors d'oeuvres and drink tickets (full cash bar available if you want more)... The museum café will also be open for those with a more substantial appetite, and the gift shop will be open from 7-9:00pm ... so you can make it a night....

This special event is included in your conference registration.

The Museum's exhibits are designed to provide the visitor with a unique, interactive experience. The collection of artifacts and costumes is enhanced by the combination of state-of-the-art technology and innovative film and video.

The Museum offers a comprehensive retrospective on rock and roll's origins, development, legends and immense impact on global culture. The exhibits take the visitor on a fast-paced journey through the history of rock and roll music, from one-hit wonders to legendary inductees, from its roots in gospel, country and blues to the important local music scenes in such cities as Memphis, Detroit and San Francisco.

Other exhibits are devoted to the pioneering rock and roll artists of the Fifties, the soul artists of the Sixties, the political protests against rock and roll and interplay between fashion and rock. Current exhibits:

MOTOWN: The Sound of Young America Turns 50; From Asbury Park to the Promised Land: The Life and Music of Bruce Springsteen; Live from Madison Square Garden: From the Lens of George Kalinsky; 2009 Inductee Exhibit; WMMS: A Cleveland Legend Turns 40; Treasures from the Vault; Right Here, Right Now!
